Get Ready to Discover Europe and the World on the Way in Wellington

Statistics show that all international travel from New Zealand in August 2011 is up six percent from the same month last year, and is expected to continue increasing as Kiwi's continue their love affair with the UK and Europe.

As a result, Flight Centre will again hold the largest travel show in Wellington, on Sunday 6 November with a focus on the UK and Europe.

Flight Centre New Zealand's executive general manager, Mike Friend, said that despite a slight drop of the New Zealand dollar against the greenback in recent weeks, and the local interest in New Zealand currently, the demand for international travel is still strong.

"A combination of great airfares combined with the steady New Zealand dollar against the Euro and GBP means that Kiwi's are still ahead of the game when it comes to international travel," Mr Friend said.

Discover Europe will be held at the TSB Bank Arena and will include exclusive flight specials to the UK and Europe, as well as a wide range of specials for destinations all across the globe.

"This is an opportunity not to be missed for anyone looking to plan their 2012 UK and European travel. Whether you're just looking for inspiration or to finalise the details of visiting family and friends based overseas, this show is the perfect place to start your planning.

"With a range of European specialists and our knowledgeable travel consultants on hand, this show will provide travellers with the latest information and personalised advice on how to make the most of their travel experiences while in the UK and Europe. It also provides the opportunity to grab exclusive deals on the day.”

All attendees will have the chance to go in the draw to win return flights for two to London, Paris, Rome or Frankfurt. Customers booking on the day can also be in to win their holiday back for free!

Selected Flight Centre stores in the lower North Island will also hold in-store shows over this weekend and will have access to some of the amazing deals. Contact your local Flight Centre store for further details.
