

PACK YOUR BAGS – NEW ZEALAND’S
LARGEST TRAVEL SHOW IS ON THIS FEBRUARY

Kiwis planning their 2011 holiday could pocket great savings on airfares, accommodation, cruises and more when New Zealand’s travel industry experts gather under one roof to offer exclusive discounts and specialist advice for Travel Expo 2011.

The annual Travel Expo is New Zealand’s largest travel show and is on in Christchurch on 5 February, Auckland 12 and 13 February and Wellington on 20 February and is set to be the biggest show to date.

The free travel show, run by Flight Centre, gives Kiwis the opportunity to compare airfare and holiday options for 2011 in one place, along with finding out more information about touring, adventure travel, cruising, coach touring, car hire, travel insurance and so much more.

Flight Centre’s national product manager, James Brooker, said the expo is an opportune time for Kiwis to become inspired for their next holiday, compare all flight and holiday options and take advantage of exclusive deals on the day.

“If you are planning to travel overseas in 2011, this show can’t be missed. Not only are all the experts from a range of destinations there to help with planning, but being able to book on the day ensures savings on airfares, holiday packages, travel insurance and more.

“We know many Kiwis do their research before booking their next holiday – by bringing the travel experts together to showcase the best deals, present new itineraries and host free travel presentations all in one place, it provides an efficient way for Kiwis to research their next holiday.

“Whether you’re looking for inspiration or know exactly where your next adventure will be – Travel Expo 2011 will showcase destinations from around the world,” Mr Brooker said.

There are many chances to win an array of travel prizes at each show, with the main prize winner choosing their dream holiday with the choice of either a Yasawa Island Cruise in Fiji, a South American Adventure or a Luxury Vietnam Holiday.

Everyone who books at Travel Expo 2011 will also be in the draw with a chance to win their holiday back, to the value of $15,000.

Entertainment for all ages will be happening throughout each of the days, along with informative travel presentations on a wide range of topics including cruising, coach touring, adventure travel and information about popular travel destinations.
