Where to stay

Kowloon and Hong Kong Island are the two main tourist areas of Hong Kong. Although separated by the iconic harbour, they are well connected by MTR (train system) and the Star Ferry which makes it easy to get around.

If it's your first time in Hong Kong and especially if you are attending the Rugby Sevens, stay on Hong Kong Island where Hong Kong Stadium is located. Hotels in Central, Causeway Bay and Wan Chai are usually within walking distance to the stadium.

Otherwise take the MTR to Causeway Bay Station and the stadium is about 15 minutes walk away.

Get amongst it

The HSBC Sevens Village is right across from Hong Kong Stadium and shows all the live action on a giant screen. There's a great atmosphere with live music, sports themed interactive games, giveaways, food and beverage outlets and the opportunity to meet past rugby legends.

As well as being home to this daytime festival, the HSBC Sevens Village is also the venue for the after party. Once the final whistle is blown, the fun continues for the best after party that the weekend will offer. Entry to the HSBC Sevens Village is free.
