

Tips for the Show

Here's a few insider tips on how to make the most of a Flight Centre travel show.

Get there early!

They say that the early bird catches the worm. The doors open at 9am sharp, and we recommend getting there bright and early to secure an unbeatable show-only deal. Parking spaces can be in high demand so allow time to find a spot. Check out the Getting There page of the show website for more details about parking and any venue parking charges that may apply.

Not a morning person? You'll be pleased to hear there is a cafe at the show so you can get your caffeine fix.

Check out the deals!

Our travel shows offer exclusive and amazing deals. These are for one day only, and they're not available until the day of the show. If you already know where you want to go, head straight on over to a Flight Centre travel expert and secure your booking. All bookings made and deposited on the day go into a fantastic prize draw (details below).

Grab a show guide!

When you arrive grab a show guide, these have a map to help you navigate around the show. It will also tell you which exhibitors are at the show and where they're located.

Talk with the experts!

Exhibitors are invited by Flight Centre and may vary between each show, but can include airlines, tour operators, hotels and resorts, tourism boards, cruise operators, foreign currency exchange, visa advisors and more... These experts offer valuable information and first hand experience about their destinations, products and services.

Learn more!

Be sure to get in early at the travel presentations – free to attend, but seating is on a first-come first served basis. These 15 minute sessions give you an overview of a destination or exhibitor and are usually in the form of film shows or talks. With a broad range of topics you can attend one or attend all – the choice is yours.

Presentations schedules are listed on the show website and are also available at the show.

Be in to win!

Just by coming along to the show and registering your details, you could win an amazing prize! Enter your details into the registration kiosks at the show, (located at the entrance and exit) and be in to win.

And if you book on the day and pay a minimum deposit you'll also go into a prize draw for a chance to win your holiday back up to a value of $10,000!

For more details about the competitions along with terms and conditions, visit the Competitions page of the show website.

Ask us!

Flight Centre travel experts are there to help you plan your dream holiday. And if you have any other queries about the show do come and talk to our friendly Flight Centre staff at the Welcome Counter (located by the show entrance) or the Enquiries Counter (located inside the venue).

Entry's free – see you there!
