Cook Islands

With its exquisite beauty, charming people and unspoilt environment the Cook Islands has a disarmingly desirable position in the Pacific. The perfect place to inspire the soul, stir the spirit and seduce the heart. So where else would you want a wedding?

Add to this mystique the pure practicality of the fact it is but a stone's throw from most places, it's little wonder these islands have become so popular when it comes to selecting the most idyllic spot on earth to get married. The certainty of an island escape which has all the attributes any would-be bride or groom could wish for on their special day - crystal clear lagoons, enticing temperatures, relaxed ambience and warm welcoming people - makes the Cooks the place of choice when it comes to saying "I do".

What's more – when it comes to planning the big day, if friends and family know well in advance they too can prepare to join in on a tropical trip of a lifetime; made even more memorable by the "big day" that began it all. Ever dreamed of an island wedding? Walking down the aisle to a melodic choir of island voices? Stepping barefoot onto a sandy shore to say your vows flanked by a tropical sunset? Being borne by husky islanders onto a motu to pledge your love under a fragrant frangipani arch? An unforgettable memory that lasts a lifetime is bound to be yours if you choose to marry on one of the myriad islands that make up the string of jewels that are the Cook Islands.

When to go

The year-round temperatures in the Cook Islands only vary slightly, with the big seasonal difference being the rainfall. The Cook Islands has a very wet season of November to April. Travel times between the months of May and October are usually a sure bet of good weather.

Things to know

Currency & Local Customs

The official currency is the New Zealand dollar. ATMs are available at the airport and in some major centres. Major credit cards are accepted in resorts and some shops in Rarotonga. Tipping and bartering are not encouraged in the Cook Islands. A smile and a 'thank you' are sufficient. Topless sunbaking is seen as offensive and it is respectful to cover up before you leave the beach. If you enter a church make sure you are conservatively dressed.

Language

The official language is Maori, or Cook Islands' Maori. Most people also speak English.

Try these Cook Island Maori phrases: Hello (Kia Orana), goodbye (Aere Ra), please (Ine), thank you (Meitaki).

4. Aitutaki lagoon

Have your wedding photos with breathtaking views of Aitutaki Lagoon as your backdrop.

5. Te Vara Nui Island night

For something a bit different why not host your reception here, or just a great night out for everyone!

6. Add on a honeymoon

Get away from it all, and add a few nights in Aitutaki or get your own private villa and relax in paradise.

When to go

Sitting firmly in the tropics, you can generally expect warm weather year round. The wet season is from November through to April, and if you don't mind the odd afternoon thunderstorm, this is also the best-value time to travel. Most resorts in Fiji cater to families, so school holidays are the busiest time to travel.

Things to know

Electricity 230V 50Hz

Currency

Fiji's official currency is the Fijian dollar (FJD). Major credit cards are accepted in resorts and tourist areas. Tipping is not encouraged anywhere in Fiji, a smile and a thank you is generally enough.

Language

Fiji's official language is English; however several ethnic Fijian dialects are widely used in community groups. Bula is a Fijian greeting used when meeting friends. It can mean good life, health and happiness, or simply hello. Vinaka means thank you, and after a few days in Fiji you'll definitely want to say, au maru (I'm happy).

TAXES: Certain taxes are mandatory in various countries. There may also be an additional local tax charged at some airports. All taxes are subject to change without notice.

DEPOSITS & FINAL PAYMENTS: A non-refundable deposit of $100 per person must be paid to your travel consultant at the time of booking. You will be notified at the time of your reservation if any additional booking fee or deposit requirements apply. All deposits are non-refundable. Full payment for your holiday package is required at least 30 days prior to departure, or by the sale end date or payment deadline specified in individual package conditions, whichever is earliest. If for any reason we do not receive the deposit or your balance by the due date, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled and to apply the appropriate cancellation charges. A deposit holds services requested but does not guarantee prices. Bookings made within 30 days of departure will only be accepted if full payment is received by Infinity Holidays at the time of reservation.

CANCELLATION AND REFUNDS: We are unable to provide a refund to you until we receive the funds from the relevant supplier. Cancelled bookings will incur charges. These charges can be up to 100% of the cost of the booking, regardless of whether travel has commenced. Fees will also apply where a booking is changed or tickets are re-issued. As a minimum, our cancellation charges are 10% of the total booking value, plus any applicable supplier fees or penalties. These cancellation fees are subject to change without notice. The amount of each supplier's cancellation fees or penalties is beyond our control and payment is solely your responsibility.

To the extent permitted by law, no refund is available for cancellations after the holiday package has commenced or in respect of any tours, accommodation, meals or any other services not utilised. Requests for refunds received more than 6 months after the departure date for travel will not be accepted.

If you decide not to use part of parts of the arranged services or facilities, you will not be entitled to a refund from us (provided we have carried out our service with reasonable skill and care) and you may not be entitled to a refund from any supplier.

AMENDMENTS: Subject to our pricing, cancellation and refund policies discussed above, Infinity Holidays is happy to incorporate any reasonable amendments you request. An amendment is a change to an existing booking with the same inclusions and will attract a fee of $25 per amendment to cover administration fees and communication costs. This fee will increase to $50 if documents have already been issued. You may also be required to pay any supplier-imposed fees. A transfer to another package may be treated as a cancellation and supplier cancellation fees or penalties may apply.

NOT INCLUDED IN PRICE OF HOLIDAY: All passengers are responsible for the cost of their own travel arrangements to and from their departure point (as set out in the brochure). The cost of anything not specifically noted as being included in the holiday package is at the passenger's expense.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTIONS: Product descriptions featured in this brochure are based on current international hotel guides and information provided by hotels and other travel service providers or suppliers. As considerable information is provided by product or service providers and suppliers, Infinity Holidays is unable to warrant or guarantee the accuracy, adequacy or completeness of all of the information contained in this brochure. Any facilities shown as included are subject to change at any time. The standard of accommodation and other services is based on various factors, which are generally accepted as indicative of a certain class. However, Infinity Holidays does not guarantee the standard, class or fitness for purpose of that accommodation or service. All terms implied by law, except those which can not be lawfully excluded, are excluded.

BUSINESS PURPOSES: You agree that where our services are acquired for business purposes, or where you hold yourself out as acquiring our services for business purposes, the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 will not apply to any supply of goods or services made under these conditions, and Infinity Holidays will not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage of any kind to you, including any consequential loss or damage however if it may be caused.

MAPS & PHOTOGRAPHS: Maps are shown for general information only and may not necessarily reflect actual routings, locations or services provided. Photographs show places in the geographic areas, but are not necessarily included in the holiday. Hotel room photographs are representative only and the actual rooms occupied may vary in decor and inclusions from those shown. Many images are supplied courtesy of tourist bureaus, hotels and tour operators, are for indicative purposes only and may not necessarily reflect actual places or positioning.

CREDIT CARD TRANSACTIONS: The prices shown are for payment by cash and eftpos only. Payment by credit card may be accepted by special arrangement. A credit card surcharge will apply when paying by credit card. If for any reason any travel service provider is unable to provide the services for which you have contracted, your remedy lies against that travel service provider, and not against Infinity Holidays. In the event that payment has been made to us by credit card, you agree that you will not seek to charge back your payment to Infinity Holidays.

PRIVACY POLICY: Infinity Holidays is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of personal information. Please ask your travel consultant for details of our privacy policy.

BAGGAGE: Carriers publish baggage allowances applicable for carriage over their own services. Allowances include cabin baggage and checked baggage. These allowances tend to be based on a weight allowance or a piece system. We recommend you check your baggage allowance carefully as you may incur a charge for the carriage of baggage in excess of their free baggage allowance. Carriers also publish baggage safety notices, which detail items that cannot be carried or can only be carried in checked baggage. Again, we recommend you ask your chosen carrier about the applicable baggage safety requirements.

CURRENCY FLUCTUATIONS: Your booking will remain subject to currency fluctuations until full payment is received by us.

ROOM BEDDING: Prices in this brochure are based on existing bedding in the room. Requests for specific bedding arrangements must be made at the time of booking but cannot be guaranteed. For example, twin share may consist of single beds or a shared double bed.

CARS: Infinity Holidays does not guarantee to provide a particular model or colour within the requested car category. Availability of car categories is subject to confirmation at time of booking. We reserve the right to substitute different models. If a vehicle is returned prior to the end of the reserved rental period, or if the vehicle is picked up later than the reserved date, no refund will be made for the unused rental days. A credit card imprint may be required upon collection as a bond, please check with your travel consultant.

BOOKING ARRANGEMENTS: All reservations are subject to availability at the time of booking. Any verbal quote given is an estimate only and can only be confirmed when the reservation is confirmed and paid in full. When a booking is made the person affecting the booking is deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions on behalf of all people named in the booking. The contract will be governed by and subject to these terms and conditions. No variations to these terms and conditions will be of any effect unless made in writing and with our authority.

MONIES NOT HELD ON TRUST: All monies paid by you to us will be the property of Infinity Holidays and will be a debt due and payable to the travel service provider once the services to which the money relates have been provided. You agree and acknowledge that such monies will not be held by Infinity Holidays on trust for and on behalf of you and Infinity Holidays may hold such monies in any account as it sees fit, including with its own and/or other customer monies.

GOVERNING LAW: If any dispute arises in relation to the agreement between you and us as constituted by these terms and conditions or otherwise, the laws of New Zealand will apply. You irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New Zealand and waive any right that you may have to object to an action being brought in those courts.

Any claim or legal action against a travel service provider is likely to be subject to the terms of your contract with them, and may be governed by the laws of other countries.
